

Do not drop rules which restrict companies from owning everything. There must be diversity in media...that is the American way.

The voiceless need to be heard. We don't need 3 people with their own agendas dictating everything the American people see/hear/read.

It's un-American!